Glimpse of Eternity

In Your Light, we see Life,
and truth leads to Truth.

The burst of citrus in my mouth,
makes me wonder;
if colours had flavour,
would orange taste
the same as the fruit?

Branches and leaves are different,
yet both are connected to the root.

And grey haired elder,
or fresh faced youth;
both agree, that a cool sip of water,
on a hot day feels good.

This is simple,
its universal.
This is true.

Staring at the crescent moon,
while warming your hands around a cup of coffee;
on a winter's evening is soothing.

Like the caress of a parent;
wiping away the tears of a child,
and placing a kiss on their nose.

We have all been pricked by thorns,
but also remember the rose!
Heaven scent delicate beauty in bloom;
Truly just like us, it's been pruned bruised and used in this life.

But nurtured and determined we grow;
because in Your light we see Light.
A glimpse of eternity;
holiness is found in the task of daily living.
And this is the sacred mystery ...

Blood flesh and bone,
from ashes to dust,
truth leads to Truth.
We are connected to each other Lord.

In Your Light we see Life,
and we all are connected to YOU!

He is the only Truth

Abba Father is our Rock,
His work is pure and perfect;
He is righteous and upright;
in Him no injustice is found.

Serve Him in sincerity with truth,
put away the gods of your fathers;
walk in His path of light and grace;
and serve your neighbour with Truth.

Let Abba Father, the God of your salvation, teach you and lead you in the path of mercy;
keep His covenant as to be a testimony, of His character that upholds the Truth.

What is Truth?

As a youngster, I asked my father:
"Dad, what is 'Truth'?"
"What the laws of science and nature does."
I believed him. It made sense.
No bother. No fuss.

Then I started searching for something
I could base my life on.
Something intangible, unseen...
Laws of values, principles?
Something pure and clean?

Then "Truth" found me.
In a very unclean book.
A third heaven in the Bible?
I definitely had to have a look!

I searched in my husband's Bible.
The Third heaven in there is true!
Amazed and intensely interested,
This, I must, I need to read through!

There I found the "Absolute Truth"!
In the form of Jesus Christ, the Son.
Unseen, unheard, "Truth" reached out to me,
Cleansed me and lifted me up to the Holy One!

I'm the Way, the Truth and Life said He.
No one comes to the Father, but through Me.
I found this to be so absolutely TRUE!
In bad thought and deed, I became totally free!

My praise and worship to You I bring!
Adoring songs of love to You I sing!
In my life You changed everything!
To You, my "Truth", I will forever cling!

Hallelujah! Amen! And Amen!

Truth

What really is?

What can be proven by human senses?

What, is this life reduced to random interactions of infinitesimally small and mindbendingly complex things, that twist and change coalesce with their observing?

Where is Truth in this infinitely magnificent universe of light bending stars that sing and bathe our home orb with energy unseen?

The more we ask, the more there is to ask, to know...

You said: "I am the way, the Truth and the Life ..."

The Spirit of Truth

The Spirit of Truth
comes from the Father,
and advocates for us.
The Spirit of Truth
guides us
and lives within us.

He enables us to worship
in Spirit and in truth.
He loves us,
and Love rejoices
in the truth.

His Word is the truth,
and the truth sets us free...

We are sanctified by the truth,
cleansed by the truth,
and healed by the truth.

Jesus is-
the Way and the Truth, that leads us
to Everlasting Life...

The Truth is God!

Dear Father in heaven,
As a child I was taught that You did not exist.
I believed this horrific lie.
Life only happened around my perishable self.
Even this earth will someday die...

Without You we are the center of our universe.
What we want is all that matters.
We lie, steal and cheat to get our way.
We need control over everything, every day.

Loss of control brings self-pity and depression.
Suddenly our life loses it's meaning.
Emotionally we become completely drained.
Why must we live as a human being?

Emotionally I died, I did not want to live.
Then You personally came to show me
The absolute TRUTH that You DO EXIST!
That the body of Your Son Jesus was killed,
So that my spirit could become alive in You!

You, Holy Spirit, came to make me new.
In myself this is 100% TRUE!
You Jesus, loved my sick and tired soul
More than Your own body!
You washed My body and being of selfish desire.
The Truth is I am beautifully new!

Dear Father, to You I sing praises every day!
Because Your Son washed all my sin away!
Should the Truth that You surely exist,
Be for all You have called, the only WAY!

Hallelujah!
